

1. Write down the definition of a main clause.
2. Write down the definition of a subordinate clause.
3. Name one type of subordinate clause.

Identify the subordinate clauses in these sentences:

4. The girl cut her knee when she fell down the stairs.
5. When I get home, I'm going to have a big cup of tea.
6. I read a book, which was very interesting.

Challenge: identify the relative pronouns in the sentences above.

B_ild

B_s_ness

Calend_r

Cau_ht

Cent_ry

Cert_in

C_rcle

Compl_tely

Consid_ration

Identify the main clauses in these sentences.

1. Although I am tired, I will still make dinner.
2. I am very happy because I saw my friend.
3. Yesterday, the light in my house broke.

Bonus: can you find the fronted adverbials in the sentences above?

A command is a sentence that tells you to do something e.g.: Listen!

Identify the commands:

1. I would like you to be quiet.
2. I am waiting for silence.
3. Be quiet!
4. You must be quiet!

Complete these sentences by inserting a fronted adverbial.

1. _____, I went to bed.
2. _____, I usually wake up at 10am.
3. _____, I twisted my ankle.

Underline the subordinate clauses in the following sentences:

4. Although I was tired, I still tried my best.
5. I went to the shop, which was down the road.
6. Despite my best efforts, I couldn't complete the task.

Underline the sentence which is an exclamation:

I am so angry with you!

You need to do your homework!

What a beautiful day it is!

Underline the main clauses in the following sentences:

1. It is always dark when I walk home in the winter.

2. When the teacher ask for silence, all the children put down their pens.

3. I stared through the dark wood, which was starting to scare me.

Are these sentences written in the passive or active voice?
Identify the voice and the convert it!

1. The boy gave the answer.
2. The child dropped the water bottle.
3. The criminal was arrested by the police.
4. The teacher praised me.

Punctuate the dialogue correctly.

Where are you going asked my mum. I said I am going to the shop to buy some milk. Ok said my mum please remember to also buy some butter.

Underline the sentence which is a statement.

1. You must complete your homework.
2. Do your homework!
3. What a lot of homework you have!
4. Have you done your homework?

Punctuate the dialogue correctly.

How was your weekend asked Sally. Harry replied well it was ok but I wish it hadn't ended. Same for me responded Sally I had such a great time.

Recap: what relative pronouns do you know? What kind of clause does a relative pronoun signal?

Write a sentence which includes a relative clause.

Are these sentences active or passive? Identify the voice and then convert them.

1. The children were worried by the weather.
2. The father did the washing up.
3. The dog ate my homework!
4. The ball was lost by my friend.
5. The snitch was caught by Harry.
6. Malfoy revealed Hagrid's secret to Professor McGonagall.

Are these sentences passive or active? Identify the voice and then convert them.

1. I was angered by the impetuous child.
2. I was attacked by the boy who had a vendetta against me.
3. The peculiar Neville lost Trevor the toad.
4. The match was won by the opposing team.

Underline the sentence which is a command.

5. Remember to always eat your vegetables!
6. You must always eat your vegetables!
7. Eat your vegetables!
8. Why haven't you eaten your vegetables?!

Underline the relative clause in these sentences:

1. When I grow up, I want to be an engineer.
2. When you feel sad, remember to talk a friend!
3. I am going to Poland, which is where I am from.

Re-write this conversation as direct speech:

The teacher looked at the boy and asked him why he was sad. The boy replied that he had had an argument with his best friend, about football. They teacher asked him what had happened. The child responded that his best friend hadn't allowed him to be goalkeeper like he had wanted. The teacher suggested that he could be the goalkeeper the next time they played.

Underline the subordinate clauses in the following sentences:

1. When the bell rings, you must line up.
2. Although she was angry, the girl managed to calm down.
3. Before I went to bed, I had a drink of water.

Are these sentences passive or active? Identify the voice and then convert them.

5. My brother broke the computer.
6. My cousin told a lie.
7. I was driven to work by my colleague

Identify the main clauses in these sentences.

1. Although I am tired, I will still make dinner.
2. I am very happy because I saw my friend.
3. Yesterday, the light in my house broke.

Bonus: can you find the fronted adverbials in the sentences above?

A command is a sentence that tells you to do something e.g.: Listen!

Identify the commands:

1. I would like you to be quiet.
2. I am waiting for silence.
3. Be quiet!
4. You must be quiet!